

Homework

Romans 1

How was Christ shown to be the Son of God?

To whom did Paul feel himself to be in debt (under obligation)?

Why was Paul not ashamed of the gospel of Christ?

What is revealed through faith?

What is revealed from heaven against ungodliness and wickedness?

What three things are plain about God from the creation around us?

To what did God give sinful men up? (3 answers) Why did He do this? (2 answers)

Homework

Romans 2

What does Paul say that the person who passes judgment on others while doing the same things not have?

What is the purpose of God's kindness?

What does the person with a hard and unrepentant heart store up for him- or herself?

What will happen to those who sin apart from the law?

What two things do the thoughts of those who do not have the law do?

How does God regard the circumcision of those who break the law?

On what is real circumcision performed?

Homework

Romans 3

What is the first advantage of being a Jew?

Who does Paul say is righteous?

What body parts does Paul list as not obeying God?

To whom does the law speak?

Why will people not be justified (declared righteous) by doing works of law?

What is true of all people that means there is no difference between them?

By what are people justified (declared righteous)? Through what?

What has God put forward or presented Jesus to be? Through or by what two things?

Homework

Romans 4

To what Old Testament character does Paul initially refer in chapter 4 to show that justification is by faith?

What does Paul say the wages or reward of one who works for his salvation should be regarded as?

What does Paul say is reckoned or credited as righteousness?

What Old Testament character pronounces a blessing on the person to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works?

What were two barriers to Abraham and Sarah having children?

How did Abraham grow strong in his faith?

For whose sake were the words "it was reckoned to him" written?

Homework
Romans 5

To what does justification by faith lead?

What items in a chain does suffering lead to that allows one to rejoice in suffering?

How does God show His love?

By what spiritual thing does Paul say that we are justified?

What three things were we when Christ died for us?

Through whom did sin and death come into the world? Why did death spread to all men?

To what does the one act of righteousness done by Christ on the cross lead?

Homework Romans 6

What else were those who were baptized into Christ baptized into?

What two events happen with Christ in baptism?

How many times did Christ die?

What should we offer or yield the parts or members of our bodies to God as?

What are the two possible masters that we can be slaves of? To what does each lead?

To what have we become obedient from the heart?

What are the wages of sin? What is the free gift of God?

Homework Romans 7

How long is the law binding on a person?

How long is a married woman bound to her husband?

To what have Christians died?

Which of the Ten Commandments proved a snare to Paul?

How does Paul describe the law? How does he describe the commandment?

Even though the law is spiritual, what does Paul say that he is?

To what law within us have we been made prisoners or captives?

Double Homework
Romans 8

For whom is there now no condemnation?

What does Paul say about the person who does not have the Spirit of Christ?

Through what will God give life to our mortal bodies?

Who is to put to death the deeds of the body? Who will help?

Because we have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, what do we cry?

For what purpose do we share in Christ's sufferings?

For what does the creation eagerly await?

From what will the creation be set free?

What does Paul say the completion of the process of adoption as sons is?

With what does the Spirit intercede for us?

To whom does God work everything for good?

Who is predestined? For what are they predestined?

In all the trouble and persecution of life, what are we through the One who loved us?

What things does Paul say cannot separate us from the love of God in Christ?

Homework
Romans 9

For whom could Paul wish that he was accused and cut off from Christ?

Who is reckoned as descendants of Abraham?

Why was Rebecca told that her elder son would serve her younger?

On whom did God tell Moses that He would have mercy?

What has God endured with much patience?

How did Israel pursue righteousness?

What did God say that He was laying in Zion?

Homework
Romans 10

What is it that the Jews have for God? What is wrong with it?

For what two reasons did the Jews not submit to God's righteousness?

What two questions does righteousness by faith not ask?

What two things does Paul say that one must do to be saved?

What chain of events (verbs) does Paul list from being saved to being sent?

Where does faith come from?

How did God characterize Israel in Isaiah?

Homework

Romans 11

What is the first reason that Paul gives to show that God has not rejected His people?

If God's choosing is based on grace, what is it not based on?

What is one reason relating to the Jews that Paul gives as to why salvation has come to the Gentiles?

What would acceptance of Christ by the Jews mean?

Why were the branches of Israel broken off?

For how long has a hardening come upon a part of Israel?

What two things are irrevocable?

Homework

Romans 12

What does Paul appeal to the Romans to offer their bodies as?

How should one think of himself?

How many bodies and members/parts are there?

What charismatic gifts does Paul list in Romans 12? How many of them are "miraculous"?

In what two ways does Paul characterize the love that Christians should have?

What should Christians do and not do to those who persecute them?

To whom should Christians leave revenge? How should they treat their enemies?

Homework

Romans 13

From whom does Paul say that the government gets its authority?

Who should be afraid of earthly rulers?

What four things does Paul say should be given to rulers?

What debt can never be paid off?

What commandment sums up many of the ten commandments?

How close is our salvation now?

What six sins does Paul warn against in the end of Romans 13?

Homework
Romans 14

Over what two issues were the Roman Christians in dispute? What third issue does Paul mention toward the end of the chapter?

What two attitudes were Roman Christians showing toward one another?

Why does Paul say that the servant of Christ will be upheld (i.e. made to stand)?

Who will stand before the judgment seat of God?

In what situation might a food that is not unclean in itself be unclean?

When can one be sure that he or she is no longer acting or walking in love?

Why is the person who has doubts about what he eats condemned if he goes ahead and eats?

Homework
Romans 15

Whom should the strong bear with? Whom should they not please?

Why were things written down in the Old Testament?

In what way should Christians welcome/accept/recieve one another?

What three things was Paul convinced about the Roman Christians?

Why did Paul exercise his priestly duty/service of preaching the gospel of God to the Gentiles?

What was Paul's ambition in preaching?

Where did Paul hope to go as his next mission field? For whom was he taking up a collection in the meantime?

Homework

Romans 16

How does Paul describe Phoebe in her role at Cenchreae?

Who does Paul say had risked their necks/lives for him?

Who were of note among the apostles?

How many of the twenty-six people whom Paul greets at Rome were women?

Did the Roman church usually gather in one place or in various houses?

Who did Paul warn the Roman Christians to take note of (to mark) or to watch out for?

Who was Paul's helper in writing the letter?

